Jim,

I am glad to hear that you have thrown your support behind Mark Brnovich for Attorney General. We need a nominee who can gain the confidence of the public and hold this important seat for Republicans.

Holding the Attorney General's Office will not be easy - and is important. The Obama Administration is increasingly aggressive, the U.S. Senate is controlled by Harry Reid, and often it is the State Attorneys General who offer the last line of defense from federal overreach. It would be unfortunate if this office fell into the hands of an Obama ally because we failed to nominate a candidate who can win.

Mark Brnovich is principled, intelligent, and hardworking. He is a talented lawyer and accomplished prosecutor. He understands that the principles of limited government, free enterprise, individual liberty, and the rule of law are the cornerstones of our Republic. I firmly support his candidacy and I'm glad you do too. Feel free to share this with others.

Mark will need a lot of financial support to win this race and I hope you will spread the word. Elections have consequences and we need to ensure the best possible ones for Arizona.

Sincerely,
